AYER'S AGUE CURE.

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Head-ache, and Billous Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries. No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of he American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled, to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails.

Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful disemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its WILLIAM J. PRICE, where Fever and Ague prevais, everybody should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure in Eastern North Carolina, Beaufort not excepted.

The object of the strength of the Atlantic & Charles of t

any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great varity of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism. Quinting the place to any person within the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy physical deputy is asconsined to find his heath of energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases.—

The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and diican Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. They are an excellent alterative for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been retry abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. FOR THE RAPID CURE OF oughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the

S1,000 REWARD.

THE ABOVE REWARD will be given to any person who will apprehend and confine in any Jail so that I get them, my two negroes, SUT & LEWIS, who ran away in 1859, from Clark & Smith, near Georgetown, S. C., or $500 for either. SUT is about 27 years old, more than 6 or $500 for either. SUT is about 27 years old, more than 6 feet high—very black and very likely, and will weigh about 180 pounds. LEWIS is just such another negro as Sut, except that he is not so black, and has lost a part of the fore-finger of his left hand by a Straw-Cutter.

This offer good until the 1st day of September, 1860.

HENRY S. CLARK,

of Greenville, Pitt Co., N. C.

Feb. 27, 1860.

RANAWAY from the subscriber's plantation, last June, his negro boy PETER. Said Peter is a dark negro, about 18 to 20 years old, 5 feet or 5 feet 6 inches high, tolerably stout made,—is a Cooper by trade. Supposed to be lurking about Long Creek, Lower Black River or Upper Black River Districts. I will give the above reward for his return to me, or his lodgment in the jail of New Hanover County.

JAMES P. MOORE. $50 REWARD.

RANAWAY FROM THE SUBSCRIBER on the night of the 27th inst., a negro man named GREEN, aged about 40 years, tolerably bright complected, coarse, harsh looking skin, bushy head of hair, had whiskers when he left, weighs about 160 pounds, is close built, broad across the shoulders, quick step, and quick spoken when spoken to, and has a small naked spot on the top of his head.

I will give the above reward of Fifty Dollars for his apprehension and delivery to me, or for his confinement in any isil ion and delivery to me, or for his confinement in any jail hension and delivery to me, or for his commement in any jair so that I get him again.

It is supposed that he went off with his young master, a boy of about eighteen years of age.

NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER having purchased the right to manufacture and sell Wm. E. Wyche's Patent Ploughs in the Counties of Duplin, Onslow, New Hanover, Bladen and Brunswick, takes this method of informing the citizens that he has now, and intends keeping constantly on hand a good stock of the above named Ploughs at the following places: In Wilmington at Messrs. Alderman & Bettencourt's and at David J, Greer's Lamp Store, No. 46 Market street; in Onslow at Jacksonville, and at Mr. Southerland's Store at Richlands; in Duplin at Kenansville and Duplin Road.

The original pattern which met with almost universal approbation has been remoddled, and the few slight objections found to exist have been removed. These Ploughs are now confidently offered to the public as one of the best farming utensils ever invented, without exception.

CARRIAGE FACTORY.

B. R. HOOD respectfully informs the public that he is still at his old stand in Clinton, where he continues to manufacture CARRIAGES, BAROUCHES, ROCKAWAYS AND BUGGIES. He is prepared at all times to execute work with neatness and despatch. He superintends all his operations in person, and guarantees that his work shall be as durable, as neat, and as cheap as any other establishment in the State.

He is now constantly employed in manufacturing and applying his new patent scroll springs, without which no buggy can be complete. These springs prevent the usual unpleasant motion, and add but little to the cost of a buggy and is of incalculable benefit, as they completely prevent that strain upon the other springs which has given rise to so many breakings. All who want an easy riding buggy will give him a call.

ORIENTAL WANDERINGS. ARAB GRATITUDE—THE LIGHT OF THE HAREM. During successful medical career of more than twenty years, in the course of which he has visited every quarter of the globe, it may well be supposed that Professor Hol-th mutor and communes. As the originator of a system of treatment which has swept over the world with a force and rapidity that, in this enlightened age, are the pre-rogatives of Truth, his fame everywhere preceded him.— Even in traversing Arabia, some years ago, he found that his name and discoveries were well known to the Sheiks of the various tribes, and deputations of Arabs met him at various points of his journey, soliciting the great "Hakim," (their name for physician) to visit their tents and administer to the sick. At every encampment he was received with most profound respect, which deep-ened into absolute reverence as the effect of his wonderderful remedies was witnessed by these children of the wilderness. Some of his adventures among them were quite of a romantic cast. One of their chiefs, a majestic old Bedouin, whose favorite daughter had been for years affected with a scorbutic disease, was so carried away with rapture at her recovery under Professor Holloway's hands, that in a burst of gratitude, he offered him half his flocks and herds, if he would remain with the tribe his flocks and herds, if he would remain with the tribe and be its guest for life.

While visiting Constantinople, on his return home, he had an audience of the Sultan, and was requested to prescribe for a favourite adalisque in the imperial harem, who had been pronounced incurable by the Furkish doctors. She was a Circassian slave of surpassing beauty, and realized in her form and face the description of "Young Nourmahel" as described in Lalla Rookh.—

Her disease was dyspersia aggregated to doubt but the Her disease was dyspepsia, aggravated, no doubt, by the ennui, created by a sequestered and monotonus life.—Within a month, however, Professor Holloway's great medicines, with the aid of daily exercise in the gardens of the Seraglio, accomplished a complete cure, and he subsequently received an authograph letter from the Sultan, thanking him in the warmest terms, for restoring to health the "Light of his Harem." No sooner was the news of this cure noised through Constantinople, than the lodgings of the "Great Frank Physician" was literally besieged by dispeptic Pashas and billious Beys, and from the period of his departure to the present time, the demand upon his agents in Constantinople for the

Dr. Livingstone's " Travels." Conviction of Robert T. Williams. One of the most exciting trials that has ever taken place in North Carolina, has just been concluded in Rockingham Superior Court, and has resulted in the conviction of Robt. T. Williams of the murder of Margaret Helton. The case was called up on Thursday of last week. On Saturday after dinner J. H. Boyd stated the grounds of defence, when Mr. Solicitor Settle commenced the argument for the prosecution, speaking until 9 or 10 o'clock; Hon. John A. Gilmer then spoke in defence of the prisoner until about 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, when the argument was suspended until Monday morning of this week; Monday was occupied by J. R. McLean, Esq., for the State, and Hon. Jas. T. Morehead for the prisoner. Late Monday evening Judge Bailey delivered his charge to the jury, who, after an absence of about one hour, rendered a verdict of guilty. On Tuesday morning the Judge sentenced the prisoner to be hung, from which judgment Williams took an appeal to the Supreme Court.—Greensboro' Patriot,

I saw a model husband in a dream,
Where things are not exactly as they seem;
A moral man, to skeptics be it known;
The wife he leved and cherished was—his own;
And for the test—I saw the husband wait
With horse and chaise five minutes at the gate
While Jane put on her things; nor spoke one sour
Or bitter word, though waiting half an hour
For dinner; and like patience on a throne,
He didn't swear to find a button gone.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for New Hanover County, respectfully requests all meetings for the appointment of Delegates to the Demthe Tuesday of County Court.

the Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for this County, we publish a request having reference to the holding of meetings for the appointment of Delegates to our County Convention. We are not aware that any meetings have yet been held or any Delegates appointed. It is about time that the attention of the party was directed to this subject, in order that any decision, when made, may be a deliberate one, and calculated to command the respect of the party, and reflect its wishes. Shall we say for all District meetings not already held or called, SATURDAY, MAY 26TH?

The Electoral Canvass.

The Democratic candidate for Elector in this district. Wm. A. Allen, Esq., learning that the Fayetteville Observer had announced that Mr. Dockery, the opposition candidate for elector in the district, would shortly take the stump, requests us to state that his (Mr. Allen's) professional engagements will necessarily prevent Solicitor in the Newbern Circuit, is so unwell as to be unable to attend, personally, to the duties of his office, hence Mr. Allen's exacting professional engagements .-When the Courts are over, he will canvass the district or consultation with Mr. Allen, then Mr. Allen will know what course to adopt for himself.

In the event of Mr. Dockery's starting by himself, it would be only fair and courteous to provide him with a partner wherever he speaks-say in the shape of a Dem- ture. ocratic County elector, so that he may not pass without "a Roland for his Oliver."

When the Democratic National Convention which assembled in Charleston adjourned to meet in Baltimore at a later day, it was evidently for two reasons and with two objects. The one was to be removed from the outside pressure which some thought unfavorable to harmonious action, but the main one was to give time for their friends - with the party at large .- in the hope that an interval of cool reflection might induce a more conciliatory spirit, and restore that harmony so essential to success, and in our opinion so necessary for the good

If the interval between the adjournment at Charleston and the re-assembling at Baltimore be thus employed. If kind feelings be cultivated-if mutual misconceptions be explained and misunderstandings reconciled, then much good will be done.

If on the contrary, crimination and recrimination be the order of the day. If the only efforts made, be made not for the party, but for or against this or that particular man, then the Baltimore re-assemblage will be all in vain. Better wipe every present aspirant off the list -better explode another Princeton "Peace-maker' and blow them all up, than jeopardize the peace of the country by ruining the barmony of the Democratic party. We will none of such things. The country will none of them. The Democracy will none of them. If the cry be this man or nobody, or that man or nobody, then nobody be it. Coercion is not Democracy.

Are we to have excited newspaper editorials? Are we to have gladiatorial exhibitions in the arena of the Senate or the House? Are we, the rank and file of the Democratic party, to be sacrificed to the ambition of any man or of all the men in Washington? Surely

The editor of the Charlotte Bulletin speaks of the "ostensible editor" of the Journal. The ostensible editor of the Journal is also the real editor, but must confess to his inability to be in two places at one and Bulletin of what he must have known before, that Mr. Fulton, being in Charleston at the time the editorial referred to by that paper appeared, could not then have been in personal control of its columns, and of course while a reference to the Journal was perfectly correct, a personal reference to an individual known to be absent could hardly be regarded as accurate. We trust our friend of the Bulletin will understand us as speaking in no unfriendly spirit, when we say that, as a rule, we prefer to allude to, or quote the opinions of a paper rather than to drag forward the name of its editor-in any dis-

The Bulletin chooses to take its own course and we ours. We do not find fault with it for doing so, but we object to its being quoted as Democratic authority, or as an exponent of Democratic feeling in North Carolina; whether it would find the majority even in South Carolina to go fully with it in spirit, is a matter of grave question with us. We have serious doubts on that subject.

CONSARN IT !- HANG IT !- CONFOUND IT !- CON-DEMN IT !- These and other things even "worser" did we say this morning, when we found the reading columns of several of our favorite exchanges taken up with the first passages of "Rose Elmer," by Mrs. South worth, said first passages being wound up by the announcement that "the above is all of this story that will be found in our columns," etc. "The above" ends with a woman of mysterious words and uncomfortable character, who swears very improperly. The continuation will be found in the New York Ledger.

The Japanese Embassy have arrived in Washington by this time-have, no doubt, taken up their quarters at Willard's-may soon have their audience of the President-see the Capitol-admire Seward's scrubby head in the Senate-possibly see a fight in the House, etc., etc. They appear, from all accounts, to be a right jolly sort of John Bell, of Tennessee, the Presidential nomine of the Opposition Convention, is sixty-three years of age, having been born near Nashville in 1797. He has been a member of the State Legislature-of Congressof the U.S. Senate, also, Secretary of War under Gen. Harrison, but retired from the Cabinet when Mr. Tyler differed with the Whig party on the Bank question .cussion, friendly or otherwise, and any other than friend- He has always taken a strongly Northern view of quesly discussions we have not yet had, and hope never to tions, having in 1838 voted not only to receive Abolition petitions, but also contended that such petitions should be referred and reported upon. He is a Tariff man of the strongest sort.

Mr. Everett, the Vice Presidential nominee, is rather older than Mr. Bell, and much better known. He is a brilliant writer and speaker. Whether he is a political statesman is not quite so certain.

Does the Washington States and Union expect to make anything by its denunciation of those delegate who, after a certain point, declined to participate further in the councils of the Democratic National Convention. Until we know that their constituents withdraw the such powers into the hands of their constituents, we insist that they have still a right to take their seats in the Convention to which they have been accredited. They will hardly apply, however, but they will be apt to give a hearty support to a good candidate on a safe platform. Alabama will give her electoral vote to a Democratic candidate. Will her denouncers of Ohio or Michigan do as much? What say Messrs Steward and McCook?

We are neither ultraists, disunionists nor seceders, but for all that, we beg the leaders and organs of the party of Mr. Douglas and the North West, not to forget that there is still a South, and that contemptuous reference to that section is neither sound policy nor good taste.-The North West is "great," but it is not omnipotent.

Why indulge in any of these recriminations ?-Why refuse his seat to any delegate who may choose to resume it? Conciliation and not exasperation ought to be the ation as a missive, and there was the most admired dis-As long as the Democratic people, their constituents,

A Valuable Horse Dead.

We upderstand that yesterday afternoon a highly valnable horse known as "Major Rogers" and belonging to John Dawson, Esq., of this place, died suddenly of colic. "Major Rogers," a large, noble fooking brown horse, was one of the fastest trotters in the country, his like five thousand dollars, and we question if Mr. Dawson would have parted with him on any terms. The " Major" was something of a public character, and therefore worthy of notice. We were not sufficiently acquainted with his moral character or social habits to speak intelligently on these points, but we have heard that he was, in addition to his other qualities, a gentle family horse.—Datly Journal of yesterday.

We noticed the arrival at our wharves yesterday wheel steamer called the A. P. Hurt, after her worthy commander, Captain A. P. Hurt, under whose supervision she was constructed.

The A. P. Hurt is intended as a passenger and freight to see awfully mangled. We were relieved, however, to boat between this place and Fayetteville, and from her her adapted to all the demands of the trade. Her dimensions are as follows :- Length 118 feet, exclusive of wheel; breadth of beam 18 feet; depth of hold 4 feet. She draws 17 inches when light, and is of 125 tons burgineer not seeing him there, nor having any notion that then. On her upper deck are the saloons and berths he was there, started the engine forward slightly—the she has 36 berths in all. There are six state-rooms with fireman's arm was twisted in, and another turn of the three berths in each—a saloon and dining apartment, a social hall for way passengers, and where gentlemen may smoke-a room, the last aft, for ladies traveling with less than two feet, got off and assisted in extricating the children. UNION CONVENTION-BELL AND EVERETT .- The tel egraph announces the nomination of Bell, of Terrnessee for President, and Everett, of Massachusetts, for Vice President. The high personal character and great ability of these gentlemen are unquestioned; their political soundness is another question. Senator Bell voted against the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and in all the contest about Kansas, sided with those least friendly to the South.-Mr. Everett has opposed ultra abolitionism, at the North, and refused to help do honor to John Brown's memory.

The meagre description of the platform hardly allow comment. As we construe it, it means "the Constitu tion," (to be construed North or South to suit the vo ter;) " the Union;" and " the enforcement of the laws." It utterly fails, as we suspected it would, to take hold of the issue on which the fate of the Union is suspended.

But we must await fuller reports for extended comment.—Montgomery, (Ala.) Mail.

After the transfer of the light baggage, the boxes of money and the treaty case to the steamer Phiadelphia, the Japanese, with the exception of the Embassadors, came aboard of the Philadelphia. Shortly after, all the commissioned officers of Fortress Monroe arrived, and lastly, the yards of the Roanoke were manned. The boat with the Embassadors left amid the roar of seventeen guns, and the masic of both bands. They were received on the Philadelphia by Capt. Dupont and Mr. Ledyard, and were shown to their respective state rooms. A grand dinner was given in the principal saloon of the steamer, and the steamer left for Washington in a few minutes thereafter.

LYNCH LAW-Prisoner Killed in the Hands of the Sheriff .- John Taney, a nephew of the Chief Justice Taney, was killed in the Court-House of Travis county, Texas, on the 24th ult., while his trial for the murder of John Edwards was going on. It appears that he was a man of desperate character, and two years ago killed the son of the man whose murder he was now on trial. The Austin Intelligencer says: The morning session of the Court had been held, and the prisoner was about being taken to the jail till after dinner, when a gang of some eight or ten men, who had been in attendance on the trial, came up, and one of the number, Jesse Graham, reached out his hand and said, 'How do you do, Taney?" and jerked him from Sheriff Blackwell, and the men with him discharged a volley of shot at Taney. Blackwell had only a couple of small derangers with him. He fired with one and shot Graham, who made off, exclaiming, " By G-d, he's got me." The Sheriff, when in the act of discharging his second pistol, was caught by one of the gang and held. Taney was then finished with balls to the number of thirteen or fourteen. About twenty-five shots were fired at him, and the parties then rushed to their horses, which were tied close by, mounted and made their escape. The Sheriff, assisted by citizens, arrested Parson Milton, T. Carperton and his son Reuben, and put them in jail .-They have since been tried and the Parson bound over to the next term of the District Court in the sum of $5,000, and the son remanded to the county jail to await his trial. C. S. West, Esq., appeared as attorney for the State, by appointment of Judge Tirrell, and Shelley and Freeman for the defendants. Taney was a nephew against Douglas, and advocating the Southern view of of Chief Justice Taney, of the United States Supreme Court, a young man, who had become, from force of circumstances, desperate and abandoned. He killed Clint Edwards about two years ago, and was strongly suspected of having killed the old man, John Edwards, recently; and it was upon a writ obtained by young Edwards and Parson Camperton, who live on Onion creek, that he was arrested and brought to trial.

The lady with whom I have stopped is a highly accomplished and intelligent housewife. She supports a "hennery," and from her I derived my information in the matter. She told me that for many years she had been in the habit of administer ing to her hens, with their common food, at the rate of a teaspoonful of Cayenne pepper, each alternate day, to a dozen fowls. Last season, when I was with her, each morning she brought in from twelve to fourteen eggs, having but sixteen hens in all. She again and again experimented in the matter by omitting to feed with the Cayenne for two or three days. The consequence invariably was that the product of eggs fell off five or six per day. The same effect of using the Cayenne is produced in winter as well as summer.—Boston Transcript.

For the Journal.

CHARLOTTE, May, 1860 MR. EDITOR: Being of that class of persons wh fer to listen to what others say, rather than inflict upon the patience of the kind-hearted that cruel torture which it tongue, the most vicious of members, knows so well how apply, when dipped into a brain full of words, with an unatheressed imagination for its helmsman, I thought I would at least excuse my taciturnity by giving the readers of the Journal the gatherings of a full-grown delegate. But, lest you might think me too much inflated with the idea of my mission to account to you for being so far from home, and also by way of introducing to your readers the Ep scopal Convention, which is the m in subject of this article. Navy, Capt. Taylor, of the Marines, Mr. Lepyard, sominaw of the Secretary of State, and Mr. Portman, the interpreter, then boarded the Roanoke in the first quarter boat. The second boat conveyed Commander Lee, Lieut. Porter, Secretary of the Commission, McDonald, and invited guests. The third boat took the reporters aboard.

In the cabin of the Roanoke, Capt. Dupont was formally presented to the Ambassadors. The former showed his commission from the President to take charge of the Embassy while in the United States. Capt. Dupont introduced Com'dr Lee and Lieut. Porter as his associates, also the President's interpreter. Mr. Ledyard was introduced as a representative of the State Department of

I am inclined to believe that the attendance on the last too-vention in Goldsboro' was much larger, a fact easily accounted for by the greater accessibility of the place.

The first day's session was spent in the appointment of committees, and other business incident to its organization.

On Thursday the Convention met at the usual hour. The chief business brought forward was a resolution proposing the appointment of a committee to draw up a memorial to be submitted to the Board of Trustees of the University of the State, petitioning for a change in the regulation which

What was done in the after the morning session. was passed, and the committee appointed. It his closed the business of the morning session. What was done in the afternoon, I have not been able to learn.

On Friday morning, pursuant to a previous announcement of the committee and at the closek and a series.

of the Bishop, service was held at 10 o'clock, and a very able discourse delivered by a gentleman of the clergy whose name 1 did not ascertain. The Chapel, a building of not very large capacity, was filled to overflowing with person of all denominations.

As an invitation was received from Maj. Hill, the gifted Superintendent of the Military Institute, requesting the attendance of the Convention at the afternoon's parade, the usual business was suspended. And here you must bermin a digression, that I may introduce your readers to the permit and circumstance of glorious war." The Charlotte Military Institute is a lasting monument to the enterprise and warm devotion of the citizens of which Mecklenburg" to the cause of education—a spirit which will claim for them from succeeding generations an applause

The building is located in the Western extremity of the town, and occupies, with the parade and other surroundings, an extensive area of ground. There are at present in the Academy one hundred matriculated cadets, besides about Academy one numbered matriculated cadets, besides about thirty, or more, belonging to the primary department. Through the gentlemanly courtesy of Cadet Geo. Kidder, of Wilmington, I was permitted to inspect the interior arrangement and police of the building, and found everything in exact conformity with the strictest military rule. This institution, I am informed, was built at a cost of $30,000. Of that amount the town of Charlotte owns stock to the value of $10,000, the residue of the stock being taken by gentlemen of the town and county. Here is a nonle example of public spirit—the richest legacy that can descend a people—an example which is well worthy the imitation of the towns of Eastern Carolina. Such an institution, esablished in the town of Wilmington, would, in a few years. add more to the intellectual and moral wealth of the State, than five times thirty thousand dollars spent in the extension f her railroads. Nor is this the only instance of liberality shown by the people of Charlotte. The has built a magnificent Female college, at a cost of more than $35,000, for the education of her daughters. And, in addition to all this, she is now engaged in the construction of a kailroad, which, when completed, will make this the great central depot of Western Carolina for a large portion of the trade of Tennessee and the adjoining States. These facts ought to fall with peculiar emphasis on the ars of our Wilmington friends. Why is it. I would ask, that ears of our Wilmangton friends. Why is it. I would ask, that a town of the wealth and public consideration which be state, should be so far in the rear of her sister towns of the Vest in the element of schools? How does it happen that a town like Charlotte, with a population of only 3500 inhal tants, and far less wealth than is possessed by Wilmington, should be so far in advance of her in the facilities for education? Some will reply to the inquiry by feeling their pures, but the reason is not to be found in a tack of means of liberality, for the people of Wilmington have accompalated much in other respects. It exists, I apprehend, in that enlency, so common among a commercial people, to overlooms great interest in their zeal for the accumulation of wealth Let the friends of education in Wilmington wake up to the importance of this matter. Private enterprise can hever accompaish it; if done at all, it must be the result of a union of sentiment, and grow out of a just sense of its real impor-

Due, test I might trespass too much upon your space, let us go back to the polite invitation of Maj. Hill, when called the Convention from the discussion of grave subjects to winess the skill and efficiency of the young soldiers in the manas and evolutions of the lufantry drill. The cadets are supplied with Colt's patent rifle, a piece secu. ed to the insulation at a cost of $50 or $60. The manual is something entirely new, and was execu ed with great accuracy and pro cision. In a word, all their movements we re marked by that accuracy and conformity to time which can only be acquired under the instruction of accompnished drift masters. I was particularly struck with the large display of beauty and fashion which greeted the occasion 'the officers and cadets reemed wonderfully impressed with the fact that they were the observed or air observers, and labored difiguily to give practical force to that military command which says Shoulders square-eves to the front!" I mean, of course while they were maccining in the direction of the girls, but now can we biame them? It is a most natural feeling, and one which you and I have felt even in the garb of minicamen. What a strange fascination has brass when mounded into buttons, for the eyes and hearts of the fair! But, stranger still are the terrible discharges of that artillery which flashes from woman's eye. It must have been while indulging in reflections such as these that a certain philosopher, whose name is not remembered, gave expression to the truim-how wonderful is man;" and he should have added we

I cannot close my article without offering some tribute to the beauty of the ladies of Charlotte; but, in doing so, would not be understood, Mr. Editor, as instituting a comparison between them and the daughters of Cape Fear. In the contrary, I concede to the latter a claim which they so richly deserve, and, as a proof of sincerity, refer to the fact that I should have been, like yourself, a miserable old bachelor, had I not pitched my tent on its banks. But for all this, the daughters of old Mecklenburg are as bright ex-amples of womanly grace and loveliness as can be found anywhere. I have done. RAIL ROAD.

ESCAPE OF ANOTHER FUGITIVE BY THE S. R. SPAULD. MG .- Boston, May 9 .- The Atlas and Bee of this more ing states that a fugitive slave named Norris, belonging to the estate of Thomas Dixon, of Georgia, smuggied himself to Boston on the steamer S. R. Spaulding, and at once left for Canada. THE ADJOURNED BALTIMORE CONVENTION.-After due consultation, an address to the seceding Charleston convention from the democratic members of Congress has been prepared and is being very generally signed by them preparatory to its publication. The Star says:

It is understood to set forth the urgent necessity of their return to the convention, when that reassembles on the 18th of June proximo, at Baltimore. It is further understood to embrace proof sufficient to satisfy the most scep ical of the seceders that, on reassembling, the convention will adopt as the platform of the democratic party the report of the platform committee, endorsed by

THE "MARTYR" ON EXHIBITION .- The very Rev. Daniel Worth "showed up" last (Monday) night, at the City Assembly Rooms. Nothing was charged for Admission, though a collection was taken up before the meeting concluded, realizing the sum of $154 25. There were not many people present, but what the meeting lacked in numbers was made up in quality, for a more fanatical set scarcely ever gathered together. The Rev. Mr. Worth made a long speech, deta ling his trials, troubles, and tribulations. He claims to be a native of North Carolina, and gives that as an excuse for his hortin Carolina, and give that as an excuse for his incendiary acis. Helper, also a North Carolina renegade, was present and made a speech, which by no means pleased the audience. He very justly said that speaking was not in his line, but intimated that in writing be could do wonders. He said he had not promised to speak and that there should be a mutual contract between the parties, which should never be violated. Helper forgot the little epsiode about his employer in North

The feature of the meeting, however, was the presence of a faithful son of North Carolina, Mr. A. Perry Sperry, who was there to hear what the deserters had to say. He came from the county which had the honor (?) of giving birth to the Rev. Daniel worth. He asked permission to make a few remarks, and his boldness and evident sincerity secured him a hearing. He ascended the ver locks" in my youthful days, I have tried various preplatform and spoke as follows: - Mr. President, I am entirely unused to public speaking, and I merely come up here to-night for the privilege of asking Mr. Worth new plain questions, to be answered as plainly. Mr. Rev. Daniel Worth knew, when he came there to circulate Helper's book, that he was violating a law of the State. Now, gentlemen, knowing this law, and considering the treatment he received, I want him to give us justice, and say in all fairness if we have not treated him as well as we could. Slaveholders have gone his bonds to free him from the whipping post and prison; and I say that, although in your anniversary meetings you speak against us harshly, there is some kindness left in the hearts of slaveholders. ("That's o." and loud enthusiastic applause.) I also say, in the presence of Mr. Worth, and before him, that I went my-If to Sheriff Boon. Mr. Worth knows his name, and offered him a dollar to buy Mr. Worth a breakfast one morning. (Great applause.) I am a fair man, and honest in my opinions and views of the southern people; and I think, and Mr. Worth will agree with me, that the majority of the bet'er class of the intelligent people of our State only want to be let alone on this slavery question. We want you to let us alone. (Cries of We won't let you alone.") We want you to let us alone. ("We won't.") Then it is fight to the death. "(fo in!") We must be let alone. ("We won't do Great confusion. Cries of hear, hear, hear him.) Not liking the manner in which Mr. Sperry was speaking, there commenced a scene of intense confusion. Questions were asked, exclamations made, and a general wrangling ensued. After a while Lewis Tappan, and two Yankee school teachers, who were sent away from Alabama, made speeches. As $154 25 is not money enough to satisfy a man like Mr. Worth, he will no doubt get up a few more meetings of the same sort. New York Day Book, 8th inst.

THE ORIGIN OF " PAUL PRY."-The origin of Mr. Poole's comedy of "Paul Pry," is not perhaps, generally known." Its construction was suggested to the author in the following manner :-

Au old lady living in a narrow street, had passed so much of her time in watching the affairs of her neighbors, that she acquired the power of distinguishing the sound of every knock within hearing. She fell ill, and was confined to her bed. Unable to observe in person what was going on without she stationed her maid at Betty, what are you thinking about? Don't you bear a double knock at No. 9? Who is it?" "The first-floor lodger ma'am."

"Betty, Betty! I declare I must give you warning. Why don't you tell me what that knock is at No. 54? "Why, Lord, ma'am, it is only the baker with pies." " Pies. Betty; what can they want with pies at 54? They had pies yesterday.

ULT IN WISCONSIN — The official canvass for nief justice in Wisconsin, finally closed the latter part of last week, and shows that Dixon, the Democratic nom ince, is elected by three hundred and ninety-five majority. This is even better than heretofore reported. Nor is this all. Circuit judges were elected in four judicial districts. In one, Mann. Democrat, has 7.867 majority over his Black Republican competitor; in another, Cate, Democrat, has 7 867 majority; in another. Weatherbee, Democrat, has 216 majority; and in another, Orton, old line Wing, is elected without opposition. The Black Republicans have not elected a single nominee. This is pretty well for a State that gave Fremont thirteen thou- tive of Edinboro', Scotland, aged 71 years.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN, Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20th, 1858. GENTLEMEN: Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my cer-

the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruft to form upon it. Each of these disagreabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me baid.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald.

Very respectfully,

BEN. A. LAVENDER. To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, New York.

SIAMASTON, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC of its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all!

Yours truly,

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING MAY 16TH, 1860.

TURPENTINE.—During the week just ended the market has been rather unsettled, and by reference to our table of sales below it will be seen that prices have declined 10 cents on hard, 20 cents on yellow dip, and 25 cents on new virgin.— At the close the demand is limited, and confined principally to distillers, who show but little disposition to purchase un-less at lower rates. The receipts for the week have been less at lower rates. The receipts for the week have been larger, and the sales foot up 6,526 bbls., as follows:

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—During the week just ended the market has ruled quiet for this article, and under the advices received from other markets prices have been unsettled—closing on Tuesday at a decline of 1½ cent on last week's quotation. This morning no sales have taken place up to the time of closing our enquiries; the market is rather dull, and prices have a further downward tendency. The sales and prices have a terther downward condency.

TAR—Since our last the receipts have been rather better, and with less demand for shipment, the market has ruled quiet; we have, however, no change to report on former quotation, though the market closes with a declining tendency. Received for the week about 1,150 bbls., which have sold at BREF CATTLE AND SHEEP—The market continues to be very represent an advance in the price of this at further upward tendency; in consequence has been more enquiry here from buyers, the small stock on market, all of which is one thing of moment has been done. On It day last 141 bales changed hands at 6 courts for stained, and 11 cents for strict ne have taken place for the sell readily at fair prices.

Coffee. We have nothing new to report in the market to for this article. There is a moderate stock of nearly all descriptions in store, whilst there is merely a retail enquiry, and the sales have been in the small way at prices quoted in Franties.—But very few on market, and we notice a fair aquity. We quote at 45 to 55 cents per lb., according to quality.

Franties.—In this stricle we have nothing new to report.—There is a moderate supply of Herring in dealers hands tock, and we refer to our table for stora prices.

From.—For titate brands the market has ruled exceedingly active during the week just ended, under the advice of the case, of which sell at quotations. Other descriptions are in light stock, and we refer to our table for stora prices.

From.—For titate brands the market has ruled exceedingly active during the week there was a brisk enquiry from buyers, and on weak there was a brisk enquiry from buyers, and on weak there was a brisk enquiry from buyers, and on which large portions, at 13 rials.

Franties,—In the Corn market we have no change of importance to report as regards prices. The receipts both by river and the market has closing firm and the week there was a brisk enquiry from buyers, and on weak process of the case of the c

GRAIN.—In the CORN market we have no change of importance to report as regards prices. There is a fair supply in market, and dealers seem little disposed to operate at present prices;—the receipts for the past two weeks have been quite small, and the larger portion has been taken for interior markets. Since our last 5,935 bushels have arrived, of which 1,250 bushels sold at 82 cents, 1,335 do. at 83½ cents, 1,800 do. at 84 cents, and 1,550 do. (inferior quality) on private terms. We quote the market as steady at prices ranging from 80 to 83 cents per bushel, according to quality.—OATS.—In the absence of receipts we have no sales to report except in the small way. The demand is limited, and we notice a fair stock of former arrivals in dealers hands. Last sales were at quotations in table.—PEAS.—The market is only moderately supplied, and continues to rule firm for all descriptions; the demand, however, is principally for Cow, and high prices are readily obtained. No receipts or sales that we can hear of, and we quote nominally at 85 to 90 cents per bushel, as in quality.—RICE—For clean the market rules steady, though there is only a small business doing. There is a moderate supply in first hands, and we quote sales at 4½ a 4½ cents in bbls., and 4 cents per lb. in tierces.

GUANO.—None has been received for the past week or two, and in consequence the stock in dealers hands has become somewhat reduced; it is, however, fully sufficient for the demand, and we quote sales from store at the following prices: Peruvian $60; Reese's manipulated $50; American $40; Sombrero $35; Superphosphate of Lime $50, and Land Plaster $10 per ton, in lots as wanted.

HAY—The receipts for the past week or two have been meagre, and in consequence but few transactions have taken Plaster $10 per ton, in lots as wanted.

HAX—The receipts for the past week or two have been meagre, and in consequence but few transactions have taken place. There is a moderate supply of former arrivals on market, and only a light demand at present exists. Only one small lot of Northern has arrived since our last, which is not yet sold. We refer to our table for last sales.

LIME—None received for two or three weeks past, but we notice a fair stock in dealers hands. There is merely a retail enquiry, and the sales have been confined to small lots from store at $1 to $1 10 per cask for common lump, in quantities to suit.

MOLASSES—We have no change of consequence to report in prices. The stock of Cuba has become somewhat reduced in the absence of receipts for some weeks, still it is sufficient for present uses, as there is only a light demand from buyers. Selling from wharf at 26 cents in lots of 5 hhds., and 28 cents per gailon for single hhds.

Provisions.—The arrivals of N. C. cured Bacon have been unusually light for some weeks past, and in consequence the supply in first hands has nearly or quite all been worked off; there is, however, a moderate stock in the hands of re-tailers, and only a light demand exists. The transactions for the week have been confined to two or three small par-cels from store at 11½ cents for hog round, and 13 cents per lb. for hams. In the market for Western cured we have no lb. for hams. In the market for Western cured we have no new feature to notice. There is a moderate supply in first hands, and only a light demand, and the sales have been in the small way at 9 a 9½ cents for shoulders, and 11 a 11½ cts. per lb. for sides;—on Friday a lot of 10 hhds. sides sold from store at 11 cents.——LARD.—There is but little enquiry for either N. C. or Western make, and there is a moderate supply on market. We notice small sales at 12 a 12½ cents for the former, and 11½ a 12 cents per lb. for the latter.—Pork.—There is a fair stock of Northern on market, and nothing doing except in the retail way. Quotations in table represent store rates, according to quantity and quality.

to report in either description, except in the small way from store. The stock of both Liverpool ground and Alum has become considerably reduced, and there is some demand.— See table for last sales. Shingles.—The market continues to rule dull for both Common and Contract, in the absence of the usual demand for shipping. One or two small boat loads of Common have arrived and been sold at $1 75 to $2 per M.

Timeer.—We have no change to report in this article.—
The receipts continue fair, and the market rules dull for in.

The receipts continue fair, and the market rules dull for interior quality; for prime mill there is a fair demand, and former quotations are readily obtained. The sales reach 25 rafts at $4, $6, $6, $6 50, $7, $8 75, $9 50, $10 75 a $12 25 per M., cash and time—the latter price being for extra quality.

FREIGHTS.—In the market for coastwise we have to report a decidedly dull feeling during the past week, notwith-standing the small number of vessels in port. There is at present but little produce offering shipment, and considera-ble difficulty is experienced in obtaining cargoes. See table

CHARLOTTE, May 14.—Cotton—There has been but a limited supply on the market during the week. Sales were effected at following figures. Good middlings 9 a 10 cents. Middlings 8 a 9c. Ordinary 6 a 8c. Stained 4 a 64c. per lb. Flour.—The market closed firm with an upward tendency Ve quote at $3 00 a $3 25 per sack of 98 lbs.; 6 00 a $6 50 Wheat.—Very little offering. We continue former quotations $1 15 a 1 20 per bushel for Red; $1 30 a 1 35 per tions $1 15 a 1 20 per bushel for Red; $1 3 bushel for White.

Corn.—Market firm at 80 a 85c. per bushel.

Bacon.—We quote at 10 1-2 a 112 c. per lb.

Lard—Is worth 12 1-2a13c. per lb.

Butter—Is worth 18 a 20c. per lb.

Chickens—Are worth 20 a 25 each. Eggs—12 c. per doz.

NEWBERN, May 15th—For the week.—Turpentine—The receipts for the week have been unusually light, and prices have ruled steady with a light advance, closing at $3 25 for new virgin, $3 10 for dip and $2 10 for hard.

Rosin—Small lots have been selling during the week with very little change in prices. Common finds ready sale at $1 10 a $1 15 per 310 lbs.

Tar—Very Little doing. Continues in good demand at $1.75 per bbl.

Spirits Turpentine—Several lots have been disposed of at from 41c. to 42½c. per gall., closing at former quotations.

Cotton—None in market.

Corn—Not much arriving, and a decline of 40 a 50c. on the harrel has been experienced in the last two weeks. The Murray & Co. the barrel has been experienced in the last two weeks. The last sales noticed were effected at $3 30 per bbl.

Flour remains firm at $6 75 for superfine, and $7 25 for family.

Hay has suffered a slight decline, and is now going at $1 40 per 100 lbs. NEW YORK, May 14.—Cotton—The market is firm; sales of 1200 bales. Flour is depressed; sales of 6,500 bbls. at a decline of 5 to 10 cents, State at $5 30, Ohio at 6 05 a $6 15, and Southern 6 25 a $6 60. Wheat is depressed; sales of 15,000 bushels, white Western at 1 57 a $1 60, Milwaukee 15,000 bushels, white Western at 1 57 a $1 60, Milwaukee club at 1 27 a $1 29. Corn has a declining tendency; sales of 65,000 bushels at a decline of 2 ceats, mixed at 76 cents, and yellow at 80 a 82 cents. Beef is steady at 8 a $10 50.—Pork—Prime is drooping, sales at 12 75 a $14, Mess at 17 50 a $18 25. Lard is firm at 11 a 11½ cents. Whiskey, no buyers at the close at over 22 cents. Spirits Turpentine is dull. Rosin is dull at $1 55. Rice is firm.

CHARLESTON, May 14.—Cotton.—The transactions to-day reached upwards of 1250 bales, at former prices. The sales were at extremes ranging from 6½ to 12 cents.

BALTIMORE, May 14.—Flour closed with a declining tendency; Howard st. $6 12. Wheat quiet; white $1 50 a $1 65, red $1 30 o $1 48. Corn firm; white and yellow 75 a 77c. Provisions steady. Whiskey quiet at 22½c.

MOBILE, May 14.—Sales to day of 1200 bales Cotton. The teamer's advices had no effect upon the market. Middlings 104 a 101 cents. NEW ORLEANS, May 14 .- Sales to-day of 10,500 bales of Cotton. The foreign news imparted greater firmness to the market, which was stiffer; but no quotable change in prices. Sugar steady at 64 a 74 cents. Flour steady at $6 874. Pork quiet at $18 25.

87½. Pork quiet at $18 25.

HAVANA, May 9.—Since my last report operations have been quite extensive, particularly in the last days of April, shippers to Spain being anxious to dispatch their vessels in time to save them from the Quarantine, which is put on vessels arriving at any Spaniah port from the West Indies after the last of May. The market is again dull, and transactions are mostly confined to the lower grades at 8½ to 8½ for D. S. No. 12. It is now a settled question that the crop will fall short, owing more to the fact that the plantors commenced grinding very late than to the yield of the cane, of which there is still enough standing in the fields provided the weather continues favorable, which can hardly be expected when we consider that we are already in the month of May. The stock on hand is estimated at 245,000 boxes, against 255,000 in 1858, and 328,000 in 1859.

MULASSES is dull, and dealers in the outports are shipping in view of the limited demand. Two cargoes of Clayed, in old casks, were disposed of at 3½. Prices will remain firm until previous orders have been filled. The prices asked now are 3½ to 3½ for Clayed, and 4½ to 5½ for Massovado.—Exports from 1st January to April 30th, 9016, against 10,937 in 1859.

DR. A. & J. SMALL,

Operative and Mechanical Dentists.

THANKFUL for the uncommonly liberal patronage already received from the people of this county, Dr. A. SMALL has associated with himself his brother, J. SMALL, whose merits as a Dentist, to be appreciated only require to be known; and they are determined to perform every operation as well as it is in their power to do it, and to deserve the confidence of all.

Those so situated that they cannot come to town, can be accommodated at their homes by dropping us a note.

The "Constitutional Union Party" Convention We find in the Sun of yesterday, some details of the Chairman of the National Executive Committee, called Hon. Washington Hunt to the Chair, somebody else nominated Wm. F. Switzer, of Missouri, temporary Secretary. A Committee on permanent officers was appointed, Hon. N. Boyden being Committee-man from this State. A Committee on business was also appoint-North Carolina.

The most of the delegates said they wanted no platform to trammel them. Mr. Hopkins, of Georgia. wanted to stand on Gen. Houston, of Texas. Hope he won't sqush old Sam.

Nominated.

The Convention of the so-called Constitutional Union Party, now in session in Baltimore, has nominated Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, for the Presidency.

Mr. Bell is "trammelled" by no platform or declaration of principles. Such things might be matters of earnest consultation with Democrats. They don't trouble Opposition Conventions. Mr. Bell travels on his "shape and talents."

P. S.—We notice by our telegraphic despatch that Mr. Everett, of Mass., has been nominated for the Vice Presidency. Edward Everett playing second fiddle to John Bell, is somewhat funny. But as the thing stands, it don't make much difference .- Daily Jour., 11th inst.

ONSLOW COUNTY .- The Associate Editor of the Journal visited Onslow County this week on business connected with this Office.

The Spring term of the Superior Court of Law for Onslow County is held this week at Jacksonville. His Honor, Judge Howard, presiding. The Judge looks none the worse for the wear and tear of the Circuit.-The regular business arising in the county was got through with on Tuesday, but owing to the removal from New Hanover to Onslow of the case of one of the negro sailors, indicted for the attempted abduction of a negro boy belonging to Mr. Robbins, the Court would not adjourn until the conclusion of that trial, which might occupy some time.

The general health of the people appeared to be good, and the financial affairs of the county are believed to be in a better condition than at any time for the last twen-

There was considerable talk and some excitement about the marriage of a colored man -a very light mulatto, to a white woman. This occurred in Swansboro'. The parties were married by the Rev. ROWAN COUNTY.—By an extra from the office of the Salisbury Banner, we learn that a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Rowan was held at the Court House, in Salisbury, on the 8th instant. The meeting, which was highly enthusiastic, was ad dressed by Mr. Cantwell, of Raleigh, Mr. Clement, of Davie, and by Maj. Hall and Mr. Fleming, nominees for the Commons. The Banner says that ad valorem is in a bad way in Rowan.

AT THE DEPOT .-- More than once we have had an opportunity of testing the arrangements of the table and the quality of the viands presented to the guests in the dining room at the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Depot, by Mrs. Brothers, since she has had control of that establishment; but until recently, we were unaware of the fact, that airy and commodious sleeping rooms had been fitted up for the accommodation of passengers and others who might desire repose after a fa-

The Fight.

We acknowledge it. The thing is very wrong. It is improper-but we are not perfect, nor are our readers and we must confess that we, ourselves, searched for and read the account of the fight between Heenan and Sayers, and we suppose that other people are not much different from us in that respect. There are a great many things of which we do not approve, yet in regard to which we all have a decided, not to say a morbid curiosity, and we will venture to assert that hundreds of peo ple who deprecate prize-fighting, and would neither diration of pluck, and there is a feeling of national rivalry that extends even to fisticuffs.

> ARRIVAL OF THE JAPANESE EMBASSY.—The United States frigate Roanoke, from Aspinwall on the 26th ult., with the embassy dispatched by the Court of Jeddo to Washington, arrived at Sandy Hook, New York, on Wednesday evening. Her commander was there intercepted by dispatches from the Navy Department, directing him to proceed to Hampton Roads, where a vessel would be in readiness to receive his illustrious passen gers, and convey them to Washington. The Roanoke sailed for Hampton Roads accordingly Thursday morn

The embassy consists of seventy-one persons, and bring with them ninety tons of baggage, a large amount of treasure, and fifteen large boxes of presents for the President of the United States, among which are sever al very handsome rifles, manufactured at Yedo, and are an ingenious improvement upon the Sharpe rifle. They arrived at Panama, in the U. S. steamship Pow-

The editorial of the 1st May, referred to by the Bulletin, was and is the opinion of the Journal, but not the language of Mr. Fulton, personally, who agrees fully with its sentiments, however.

Mr. Fulton was chosen a delegate to the Democratic National Convention. When he ceases to act with that body, he ceases to be a delegate. He will then surrender his delegation to those who sent him. The seceders could not act as delegates or as a Convention.

They simply constituted a meeting of private citizens.

[First knock down for Heenan.]

4. Tom, on coming up, looked rather astonished, and his eyes blinked in the sun like a dissipated owl. Heenan went at once to him at the scratch, dodged him, and once more planted a heavy spank with his left. This time on the jaw, and down went Tom again, amidst the shouts of the Yankees, who now offered 6 to 4 on Heenan. The Sayers party look-

6. Tom's countenance, though not swelled, still was much flushed, while the Boy was almost scathless. He was somewhat wild, and tried both hands, but missed. Counter hits ensued, in which Tom received the full weight of Heenan's ponderous fist on his right arm, which was driven back against his face. Tom reached Heenan's left cheek, leaving his mark. Heenan retaliated on the right brow, and Tom

Tom's right peeper displayed marks of pepper, and was perceptible that he had sustained severe injury to his right arm, which was beginning to swell, and which he now kept close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if to appropriate the severe close to his body as if the severe close to his body as it has a severe close to his body as it has a severe close to his body as it has a severe close to his body kept close to his body, as if to support it. Still he went to Heenan in his corner, and that hero delivered his left, but not effectively, on the chest. Tom danced away, and as he turned round napped a little one from the right on his back. He was quickly out of harm's way, and coming again, dodged his man until he let fly, when Tom encountered him heavily on the right cheek, drawing the claret and raising a considerable bump. The blow staggered Heenan, who stood all of a heap for a moment. Soon did he collect himself, and as Tom came again, lodged a little one on the nose, but was once more countered very heavily on the right cheek, the cut being increased and the bump improved. Slight exchanges followed, in which Tom received on the right eye and Heenan on the right cheek, whereupon Heenan went to his corner for a wipe. He seemed in no hurry to come away, and Tom stood in the middle of the ring until the Boy went slowly to him, and tried his left, but it was no go. He tried again, but only just reached Tom's brow. Tom now feinted and got home on the right peeper. Heenan missing an upper-cut. Tom danced away, came again on another tack, and bang went his left on the sore spot, a heavy spank, and he was instantly out of danger, laughing; Heenan rushed after him, but was well stopped, and thrice in succession. Again and again Tom went to him, and baulked his efforts to effect a lodgment. and then Heenan napped another slashing crack on the right cheek, which had the effect of at once closing his dexter He retreated for a wipe, and was followed by Tom, and some mutual cautious dodging and feinting took place. At last Heen-n got on the top of Tom's smeller, but not heavily, and Tom then avoided another attempt. Once more did Heenan retire to Jack Macdonald for consolation and advice; Tom walking round and eyeing him in an inquisitive manner, as if admiring his handiwork. Tom, after satisfy ing his curiosity, went close, and slight exchanges followed without mischief. Heenan tried his left, and was stopped Both very cautious, and neither disposed to go within gun-shot. Heenan now led off, and got slightly on the mouth with his left, Tom retaliating on the closed peeper. Mutual taps and stops, and then Tom got his left heavily on the old sponge, went to him, but Heenan shook his nob and seemed disinclined for work. Tom, finding he could not draw him, viciously, which was beautifully stopped. He then feinted, and got we'l on the bridge of Tom's snorer as he was retreating, and again knocked him off his pins. Tom rolled over, laughing, and was carried to his corner. This round lasted thirteen minutes, and was a fine specimen of strategem and skill, especially on the part of Tom. His right arm now was much swollen, and so painful that he could make

8. Tom slowest to the call of time, but directly he was at the scratch the Boy retired to his corner, whither Tom had to follow him. Heenan at once let go his left, but Tom laughed and jumped back. A slight exchange followed, and Tom napped a straight one on the sniffer. Heenan now missed a couple of well-meant shots, and Tom jumped away from a third, and as he turned his back upon Heenan got a right hander on the back of the neck. Heenan followed him up, but Tom grinned and jumped nimbly away. His activity on his pins was as remarkable as ever. Heenan activity on his pins was as remarkable as ever. Heenan pursued him, and at last lodged his left slightly on the nozzle, and once more turned on the tap. Tom, however, countered him on the damaged cheek, which caused the Boy to retire for the kind offices of Jack Macdonald. On Tom's going to him he let go his left on the kisser, drawing the carmine, and this led to pretty exchanges at long shots on the cheek. Heenan at this time appeared weak, and the hopes of the Sayers party were greatly in the ascendant. Heenan preferred his corner to the scratch, and Tom had some difficulty in persuading him to leave. This he at last accomplished, and some beautiful stops were made they countered effectively, but Tom was heaviest on the right cheek, which was now swelled as big as two. Heenan's blow alighted on Tom's oration trap, and drew more of the ruby. On his trying to repeat this lodgment Tom stopped him cleverly. Capital exchanges followed, in which Tom was again at home on the check very heavily. Heenan rushed at him, but Tom was away, and, after once or twice being baulked, Heenan retired again to his corner. After Tom had scrutinized him carefully, he rubbed his hands and went to him, whereupon Heenan let fly his left, but Tom and James Robeson.

Heenan's right eye had heen long closed his cheek was fortfully swoller and his

been long closed, his cheek was fearfully swollen, and his mouth was also somewhat out of the perpendicular.

9. Heenan came up as if he intended to force the fighting. He led off victoriously, but Tom got well away. The Boy followed him closely, and at last got on Tom's gob, drawing more of the juice. He followed suit on the snuffer-tray with a like versult and counter hits enough in which sale is the sale of the snuffer tray with a like versult. more of the juice. He followed suit on the snuffer-tray with a like result, and counter-hits ensued, in which each did mischief. Heenan continued to bore in, and at last Tom, after getting a little one on the back, dropped, laughing.

10. Tom was very slow to the call of time, and appeared to want nursing. It was evidently heavy work struggling against such superior metal. He stood in the middle of the ring until Heenan went to him, when slight counter-hits were exchanged, after which they closed. Heenan lifted Tom from the ground and threw him heavily, with the greatest and the friends of Heenan did not appear to be in much hurry. When they did come up Tom had to go into Heenan's corner. After a dodge or two Tom got his right on the good eye rather heavily, but it was not such a right-hander as of yore, and evidently gave him pain. Heenan returned on the chest, and Tom fell.

17. Tom did not display many marks from his repeated knock-dewn blows, but came up smiling, although somewhat tired. Heenan's mug was decidedly the most disfigured, being so much swelled. Heenan took the lead but did not get heavily on. He tried again with his right, but the blow passed over Tom's nob. Counter hits followed on the mose, in which Tom's delivery was most effective, but Tom was down.

18. Very slight exchanges, followed by a heavy counter, in which Heenan's whistler came in for pepper, and Tom got it slightly on the nose and fell.

19. Tom slow to time: Heenan not in a hurry. At last, on facing one another, Heenan went in to a close, and throwing Tom fell on him.

20. Heenan followed Tom, who was on the retreat, and after one or two dodges caught him on the jaw heavily with his right. He tried again, but Tom jumped back. Still he persevered, and heavy exchanges followed at close quarters, and both were in the end down at the ropes.

21. Tom very slow, which Heenan seeing, dashed at him, slung out the left en the nose, and again floored the Champion.

22. Tom seemed none the worse for this floorer, but it rather seemed to do him good, for he came up fresher, which Heenan seeing retired to his corner. Tom followed, and tried to deliver, but missed, and the Benecia Boy dropped him with another straight one on the jaw. Heenan's left hand was now much puffed, and did not seem to leave such impressions as formerly.

23. The time was very badly kept on both sides, and there was now complaints that the Benecia Boy was allowed a stool in the ring. An appeal was made to the referee, who at once ordered its removal, as contrary to the laws. Heenan rushed at Tom, who retreated, and got one on the back.

Tom then turned round and missed his right. They closed and Tom pegged away merrily on the nose and left cheek, and in the end both down, Tom under. One hour and eleven minutes had now elapsed.

24. The Benicia Boy first up, tried his left by a sudden dart, but was stopped. An attempt with the right just landed on the side of Tom's nut, and he fell. [5 to 4 on Heenan atill offered.]

25. Tom, very weak, came up slow, but cheerful. He waited the attack, which was not long in coming, and after getting a little one on the side of the head, Tom popped his left very heavily on the snout, drawing more home-brewed.

Heenan, wild, rushed in and bore Tom down.

26. Tom, fresher, came up gaily, and tried to lead off wit his left, but the Boy stopped him prettily. Another effor landed on Heenan's good eye. Heenan, in return, planted a rattler on Tom's jaw with his right, which staggered him, and was all but a knock down. Tom soon shook himself together, whereupon the Boy let fly his left, but Tom was well away. Following up, the Boy got on Tom's chest, but not heavily. Exchanges: Heenan on the tater-trap, and Tom on the nose, a smasher, each drawing the cork. Heavy counters followed with the left, and they broke away. Heavy exchanges followed in Tom's fa-vor, who met the Boy very straight and effective on the noz-zle, opening a fresh bin. A break away, followed by slight exchanges, led to a harmless close, and Tom slipped down. 30. Heenan's other eye was now quickly closing, and he had evidently no time to lose. He was strongest on his legs, but his punishment was far more visible than Tom's. He tried to lead off, but Tom met him neatly on the nose. turning on the red port. The Boy rushed at Tom, and literally run over and fell on him.

31. After standing some time in his corner Heenan was fetched out by Tom, who had now recovered a little. A short spar was followed by another retreat, after which Tom steam. More sparring, and Heenan again retired. Tom stood and examined him with the eye of a connoisseur until he came out, when good exchanges took place, Tom getting heavily on the mouth and Heenan on the nose. A breakaway—more sparring for wind—Heenan again to his corner. spot; another cracker, whereupon Jack once more retired into the privacy of his corner, amidst cries of "two to one on Sayers." Tom, after a few turns and a tone of the same and a ton but not heavily. Heenan then tried repeatedly to draw Tom, but the latter would not go into Heenan's corner. The Boy, therefore, had to go out, and some rapid hits and stops followed, without any apparent damages; each, however, got a small tap on the mouth. Heenan having taken another got a small tap on the mouth. Heenan having taken another rest in his corner, came out and got one on the left cheek for his pains, which all but shut up the other eye. This brought on exchanges, each on the hazzard, and then Heenan reached Tom's nose. Heavy, determined counter-deliveries on the nose ensued, after which Heenan floored Tom by a right hander on the cheek. The betting was now even, Savers for choice. It was obvious that, strong as Heenan was, unless he could make a decided change, he must in a was, unless ne could make a decided change, he must in a very few minutes be blind.

33. The Benicia Boy, feeling he had no time to lose, rushed in. but only just reached Tom's chest. Both seemed fagged, and they stood a few seconds, and then went to close quar-

and they stood a few seconds, and then went to close quarters, where Tom, as usual, was busy on the Boy's mug, until he let him slip through his arms on to the ground.

34. The Boy again tried to force the fighting, but Tom got away. They then stood and sparred until Heenan let fly his left, which did not reach its destination. He retired for counsel, and then came at Tom, and tried his right at the body, but without spaces. body, but without success. Steady exchanges led to close and rapid in fighting, and both fell, Tom under. Heenan's while Tom was very weak, the Boy rushed to close, and caught Tom round the neck, dragging him to the ropes. At this time the police, who had been gradually working their way to the ring, began a violent struggle to get close and put a stop to hostilities. The Boy tried to hold Tom, but the latter slipped through his arms and fell.

26. The Benecia Boy dashed viciously in, and caught Tom on the snout, but the blow was without powder. Tom retreated from the vigorous onslaught; Heenan followed and got home on his jaw with his right, still with no effect. Tom round, Tom napped him one on the nose. He, however, landed another pop on the good eye. Sharp exchanges at close quarters ended in the downfall of Tom. Two hours had now elappsed.

37 and last. Tom was first up, and seemed the better man. He made his left twice on Heenan's eye, and the latter at length caught him round the neck at the ropes and there ee sent orders for a cessation of hostilities, five more so called rounds were fought with pretty equal advantage.— The ring was half full of people, however, and neither man had a fair chance. Much do we regret the unpleasant duty that now is im posed upon us of finding fault with the Benicis Boy for conduct which was not only unmanly, but quite against the rules of the Ring, and had the referees been present, would inevitably have lost him the battle. A gentleman connected with our office who was present, and who had endeavored with our office who was present, and who had endeavored to stop hostilities, informs us that at the end of the fourth of these supplementary rounds, while Sayers was on his second's knee, Heenan rushed at him in a very excited state, let fly left and right at Tom's seconds, floored them, and kicked them when on the ground in desperate style, after which he closed with Sayers, and, after a wild rally, they fell together. The final round was merely a wild scramble, in which both fell. The referee by this time was able to get near and ordered the men to design from fighting. Imprenear, and ordered the men to desist from fighting. Imme-diately after this Heenan rushed away from the ring, and rasome distance, with the activity of a deer, proving that, as far as strength was concerned, he was as fit as ever; but he had not been away from the ring many minutes before he ras totally blind.

Tom Sayers, although a little tired, and suffering from his Tom Sayers, although a little tired, and suffering from his arm and the desperate hug in the thirty-seventh round, was also strong on his pins, and could have fought some time longer. The blues being now in force there was, of course, no chance of the men again meeting, and an adjournment was necessary. It was found that the authorities were up in arms in all directions, so that it would be idle waste of time to go elsewhere. Backward home was therefore the word and the men and their friends returned to the metropolis shortly after three o'clock. The whole time occupied up to the man's leaving the ring was two hours and twenty en's leaving the ring was two hours and twenty CATARACT WASHING MACHINE. Clothing, Time, and Labor Saved!

INDISPENSABLE TO HOUSE-KEEPERS. THE most simple, economical, and durable article ever offered to the public to alleviate the discorrorts of wash-

It consists of a metal cylinder, with ribs on the inside, and an interior cylinder of wood, with ribs. There is a space of from 6 to 8 inches between the two cylinders. One crank turns both cylinders at the same time in opposite directions, readily creating a suds, forcing the water through the clothes, and effectually removing the dirt. The action of the water does the work quickly, dispenses entirely with ubbing, and thus saves the wear of clothes.
